Media Release - January 2014

New Zealand Golf is pleased to announce a new partnership with the Two Under Club.

Dave Mangan, the General Manager of New Zealand Golf, said that the organisation is proud to partner with the Two Under Club. "We are always looking at means of adding value to golf club membership, and providing exclusive offers to golfers who choose to be members of clubs in New Zealand," said Mangan. "Not only does becoming a member of the Two Under Club provide our members with something to remember that special hole in one, eagle or albatross with, it also gives them the chance to compete against other Two Under Club members in a virtual monthly competition, all the while knowing that part of their subscription is going to assist with junior golf."
